

Dr. Rajan Varghese assumes charge as MGU Pro-VC

Kottayam : Dr. Rajan Varghese, Reader in Economics, UC College, Alwaye has assumed charge as the new Pro-Vice-Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi university.

Dr Varghese, specializing in public finance and public debt, with over 25 years of teaching experience took his doctorate from CUSAT.

He is currently the of the Senate and stytory finance committee of the University. He is also serving as the member of the committee on cluster college scheme constituted by the state government, State Higher Education Council, working group on technical and higher education of the State Planning Board and the board of studies of the Kannoor and Kerala Universities.